

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 19, 1883.

The progress march is onward still,
As every one can see,
And on the slate is written down
Important things to be,
And soon the town will brighten up,
For busy times are nigh,
But please to bear in mind, my friend,
No loafers need apply.

The Knitting factory is now running night and day.

The law against the shooting of squirrels expired on the 15th inst.

Bicycle riding is becoming popular in Maysville. Several of them are in use here.

It is predicted by Prof. Wiggins that July 20th will be the hottest day of the year.

Mr. M. C. HUTCHINS has executed bond as Postmaster with Messrs. W. H. Cox, N. Cooper and Omar Dodson as sureties.

THERE are about three thousand pupils in the schools at Lexington, and it is estimated that at least one thousand of them are from other States.

REV. F. S. POLLITT is announced to preach on Lawrence Creek, next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at night in the Chester Church at 7:45 o'clock.

The Short street rumpus was investigated by the Mayor yesterday and resulted in Mrs. Skinner being fined $6 for breach of the peace. The warrant was dismissed as to Mrs. Adams.

A POSTMASTER can be held legally responsible for permitting a person's mail matter to be taken from the postoffice without a written order, by other than the party to whom it is addressed.

The Knights of Pythias, of Ripley, are arranging for a grand celebration of the Fourth of July. The programme will include bicycle racing, sack racing, a parade and other interesting features.

The main track and all the switches of the street railway are finished. The last spike was driven on Monday, and there now remains nothing to be done except some little ballasting and leveling up.

Brakeman killed.
A brakeman named Hix, was killed at Boyd's Station on the Kentucky Central Railroad last night. He fell asleep at the switch and was struck by the engine.

At the examination of Prof. H. C. Smith's school to-day the pupils acquitted themselves with credit and furnished evidence of patient and careful training. The examination of Prof. Williams' school will take place to-morrow.

MR. HUTCHINS, if he accepts the office of postmaster, will have to resign as a member of the Board of Council, as he cannot, under the laws of the United States, hold at the same time a Federal and State or Municipal office.

It is thought, at Ashland, that Detective Burnett's story in regard to the murderers of the Gibbons children has been inspired by his spite against Deputy Marshal Heflin, who took the work of detection out of his hands two years ago.

The assessment of the members of the Masonic Mutual Benefit Association, of this city, on account of the deaths of Thos. C. Turner, Thomas M. Allen and R. Albert was made on the 10th inst., and on the 13th inst., something over $1,600 were paid to the heirs of each. The Association has exhibited commendable promptness.

It has been determined that unless the citizens of Maysville are more liberal than they have been there will be no fair this fall. Without a liberal money subscription it will be absolutely impossible for the directors to do anything. While it is true that there have been generous responses to the call of the committee the amount needed has not yet been raised.

The proximity of valuable and inexhaustible timber lands to this city has suggested to some of our enterprising citizens that a factory for the manufacture of barrels could be successfully established and conducted here. Messrs. John N. Thomas, Charles B. Duke and other well known business men are at the head of the enterprise and have already secured a part of the stock subscription necessary to be raised. It is designed to raise in this way $50,000, all of which it is hoped will be taken by our own citizens. Such a factory as this will be of great benefit to the city and will give many persons permanent employment.

CRIME AND CALAMITY.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 18.—George Anderson and Cato Wade shot and killed each other in what is known as the Horn neighborhood near Mosely Hall and south of Harmony Baptist Church. Their wives had fallen out about a cup of salt and used some pretty rough language. Anderson went to Wade's wife and abused her and dared her to open her mouth, at the same time threatening to "blow her head off." On Saturday night the men met at a gathering and used pretty boisterous language, which ended in the death of both. Wade ran at Anderson with his gun presented, and Anderson seeing that he intended to shoot, threw up his gun and both fired at the same instant, both reports being as one. Wade shot Anderson in the abdomen, the load of buckshot (or part of the) passing through him and killing him almost instantly. Anderson's load of eleven buckshot entered Wade's chest on the right side below the collar-bone, and he soon died.
